

AGENDA

29 June 2021

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 09:30 – 10:00 | Introduction and Ground Rules
This session will allow the participants and trainers to introduce themselves and to develop a set a ground rules that will be observed during the workshop |
| 10:00 – 10:15 | Objectives
This session will allow the trainers to explain the objectives of the workshop. |
| 10:15 – 10:45 | Assessment and Community Statements
This session will allow participants to assess the extent and impact of bias, prejudice and harassment in their respective communities, and to help understand the extent of degrading language, slurs, and jokes. |
| 10:45 – 11:15 | Impact Statements
This session will help participants to understand the impact of hate crimes and incidents on individuals and on societies and reflect on hate crimes and incidents they have experienced. |
| 11:15 – 11:30 | Break |
| 11:30 – 12:00 | Exploring Diversity
This session will assist participants in developing an awareness of the diversity that exists among them and increase understanding of the far-reaching and sometimes unseen impact of bias, prejudice and harassment. |
| 12:00 – 12:45 | Hate Crime Definition
This session will assist participants in defining and explaining the concept of hate crimes. |
| 12:45 – 13:30 | Hate Crime Bias Indicators
This session will introduce participants to the concept of bias motivation and bias indicators through case studies. |
| 13:30 - 13:45 | Wrap up of Day 1 |

Turning Words into Action to Address Intolerance

tel.: +48 22 520 0600 | fax: +48 22 520 0605 | e-mail: WordsintoAction@odihr.pl | web: www.osce.org/project/wia
ul. Miodowa 10 | 00-251 Warsaw, Poland

The WIA project is implemented across the entire OSCE region with generous funding by the Government of Canada, Germany, the United States as well as other participating States.

30 June 2021

09:30 – 10:00	Recap of Day 1
10:00 – 10:45	Strategies for Monitoring and Combating Hate Crimes This session will enable participants to identify barriers to responding to hate crimes and devise strategies to overcome these barriers.
10:45 – 11:45	Presentation of Local Legislation This session will introduce participants to the national hate crime legislative framework within their jurisdiction.
11:45 – 12:45	Case studies
12:45 - 13:15	Closing and Evaluations

Turning Words into Action to Address Intolerance

tel.: +48 22 520 0600 | fax: +48 22 520 0605 | e-mail: WordsintoAction@odihr.pl | web: www.osce.org/project/wia
ul. Miodowa 10 | 00-251 Warsaw, Poland

The WIA project is implemented across the entire OSCE region with generous funding by the Government of Canada, Germany, the United States as well as other participating States.