

Education

- JD in International Law at the University of Florence (1995-2001)

Career

- Director, Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), December 2020 to present
- President, International Campaign for Tibet, 2013 - 2020
- Head of Mission of OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Mission for Presidential Elections in Georgia, 2013
- Member of the Italian Parliament, Foreign Affairs Committee and of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCEPA), 2008- 2013
- Representative to the United Nations in New York of “No Peace Without Justice” and the “Transnational Radical Party”, 2000-2008

Languages

- English, Italian (mother tongue)